SEONerds Internet Marketing Agency has been established by Mr. Harshwardhan Kusumakar, an experienced and dynamic SEO professional with more than 7 years of experience in the industry. SEONerds aims at providing professional SEO services by our unique and resulted approach which we call Strategic 4 Step SEO Process.

Our mission is to provide ethical SEO services at the most affordable prices and deliver 100% work satisfaction to our clients. We dont believe in the number game but we surely want to deliver best SEO services to each and every of our client and become the BEST SEO COMPANY in our country.

Apart from providing regular SEO services to clients we also provide White Label SEO services to our partners who can resell our services while only concentrating on sales within their target region or country. We take care of the entire process and give our partners the freedom to work on their feasibility and the ability to set their own margins.
